Dear Mr LeGuen,

Thank you for the opportunity permitted by the upcoming IRPA congress to permit ARPS to nominate a candidate for the IRPA Executive Council.

The Australasian Radiation Protection Society nominates Dr Brad Cassels for a position on the Executive Council of IRPA. Dr Cassels is a Fellow of ARPS and long standing Executive Member of the Australasian Radiation Protection Society, serving as Vice President (2004), President (2005-2007), Registrar (2011-) and now Vice President (2015-2017).

Dr Cassels is well respected among radiation protection circles within Australia and neighbouring countries and his professional diligence and good humoured nature have seen his assistance sought repeatedly by the IAEA as Technical Expert and respective governments within Australia requiring his expertise and particular problem solving skills.

It is with pleasure that ARPS nominates Dr Cassels for a position on the IRPA Executive Council. I have enclosed both short and long versions of Dr Cassels curriculum vitae, and two signed statements from him confirming both his motivation and willingness to serve if elected.

Should you require any additional information associated with IRPA processes to assess Dr Cassels nomination, please contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Cameron Jeffries,
President, ARPS
